GOOD (?) OLD TIMES.

Sing the Old Song "Hard Times, Come Again no More."

Mr. Joseph D. Taylor: I can remember very well when I was a boy that the neighbors used to gather around my father's fireside and talk about their mortgages and debts. He did a good deal of business, and it was a very common occurrence for them to come there and talk about such matters. There was more poverty among the people, more property sold by the sheriff, more suffering and want in those days than I have ever seen since. Eggs sold at 4 cents a dozen, oats at 12 1/2 cents a bushel, corn at 25 cents, wheat at 37 1/2 cents and vegetables would not sell at all.

"When I was a boy we hauled wheat to the canal, a distance of 40 miles, and sold our wheat at 37 1/2 cents a bushel, and I can remember the time when there was absolutely no market at all for wheat. I know that my father had a very large crop of wheat, several hundred bushels, and was absolutely unable to sell it at any price, and many farmers let their wheat rot in the field. It was the same with apples and potatoes; there was absolutely no market for them. We had two large orchards on my father's farm, very good ones, too, and I remember that at one time we picked one hundred barrels of splendid apples, the choicest that we could select, and put them in new, clean barrels, but we could not sell them anywhere, and those apples rotted. I think a few of them were used in making vinegar.

A member: Why didn't you eat them?

[Laughter]

Another member: Why didn't you make cider of them? [Laughter]

Mr. Joseph D. Taylor: There was no market whatever for them. Do not talk to me about mortgages or debts. In that part of the country at that time everybody was in debt. When a man went to church on Sunday he often went in his shirt sleeves. [Laughter] He and his wife would ride the same horse, and sometimes carry one or two of the children. I have no sort of patience with this talk about the depression of agriculture, as farmers are having a hard time, and I think they will have a harder time when wool is on the free list. But they are not having as hard a time as they had thirty or forty years ago, when the Democratic party was in power.—Congressional Record.

Deserving Praise.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. O. H. Hagenbuch, Druggist.

He Get's Steepest.

"Say Nellie," said young Mr. Oculus to his wife last evening, "what makes one get so sleepy so soon after supper. Now I haven't been reading a half hour and I can't keep my eyes open. You know I take plenty of sleep at nights and am not a big feeder."

"No, John," said bright little Mrs. O., "I know what it is."

"Well, what?"

"Why you are straining your eyes, and ought to have them examined."

"O! pshaw, how silly, Nell, but what makes you think so?"

"Why brother Jim had the same trouble and he went to Dr. Goodadvice and was told to see the eye Specialist from Queen & Co., of Philadelphia, who is at the Ferguson House, Shenandoah, on Wednesday, July 6th.

This gentleman carefully measured his eyes and gave him a pair of glasses, and which were just the thing. Jim looks as bright at 11 o'clock as at 8, and his eyes have a brighter, stronger expression which makes him look much handsomer than I ever saw him."

"You don't say," said John. "Yes, I do, John," and I want you to go there next Wednesday and you won't be sorry, and it won't cost you anything to find out if glasses will help you."

"All right, my dear, I'll do it."

For a Joint Parade.

Society's hall, at the corner of Chestnut and Cherry streets, on Sunday, July 3, at 4 p. m.

A friend in need is a friend indeed, and not less than one million people have found just such a friend in Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. With their usual appreciation of the demands of their patrons, Messrs. A. McDowell & Co. are still working hard to further improve their fashion journals and to bring them closer, if possible, in touch with Paris and its latest styles. With this end in view Mr. A. McDowell has just left for Europe intending fully to spare neither time nor money in adding new features to the firm's publications, Paris Album of Fashion, and La Mode de Paris; with these two a premium is given to all subscribers for one year paying $3.50 in advance, in the form of a highly useful work called "Dreammaking Simplified." These journals, in conjunction with their others, La Couturiere and La Mode, make a list of publications that are beyond competition, because their styles are not reproductions but originals made up in Paris and come out one month earlier than other fashion journals. Messrs. A. McDowell & Co., 4 West 14th street, New York, beg to call attention to the new and artistic covers they have had designed for their journals, these are the best work of their best artists, and we have no hesitation in saying that the contents of these journals being of such a very high class make the exceptionally fine covers very appropriate.

The Joint Parade.

Society's hall yesterday afternoon several representatives met and organized, James Grant being made president and M. J. Scanlan secretary. The committee expects to hear from several societies during the week and expects to have its programme ready by Saturday.
